The mission of the Academy of Visual and Performing Arts Foundation (AVPA Foundation) is to enrich and enhance the arts education provided by the Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) at Culver City High School.

The AVPA Foundation supports after school classes and workshops; student performances, exhibitions, and screenings; instructional materials and field trips; improvements to facilities used by the AVPA; and other programs and services integral to AVPA's extracurricular program. Funding sources include grants and donations from parents, community members, businesses, and foundations.

The AVPA Foundation is administered by an all-volunteer board of directors comprised of parents who have students in the AVPA and the AVPA Executive Director. It is a registered California nonprofit public benefit corporation that is tax exempt under IRS section 501(c)(3), EIN#20-3270837. The AVPA Foundation was established in 2005.
